

SoFlacs

NATIONAL CHEMISTRY WEEK

Having a Ball With Chemistry – The
Chemistry of Sports

SoFL-ACS FAMILY DAY

Saturday, October 25, noon - 5 PM

MUSEUM OF DISCOVERY AND SCIENCE Ft. Lauderdale

Noon – 5:30 PM – free admission to the museum exhibits for ACS members and families. IMAX shows can be purchased on your own.

Hammock Theater

- 1:00 – 1:05 PM – Welcome and Introductions by SoFL-ACS Chair, Dr. Michael Elliott, Florida Memorial University and “Chemistry of Sports”, Dr. George Fisher, Barry University
- 1:05 – 1:15 PM – “Having a Ball with Chemistry – Polymers in Sports”, Dr. Tamar Hamilton & Barry Univ. Chem Club/Student Affiliates
- 1:15 – 1:25 PM – “Breakfast of Champions – Iron in Cereal”, Dr. Venkatechalam, Nova Southeastern Univ.
- 1:25 – 1:35 PM – “Let’s Break a Sweat”, Cheryl Doolittle, Pine Crest School
- 1:35 – 1:45 PM – “What to do when a mosquito decides to closely join you (like bite) when you are running or swimming”, Dr. Richard Schreve, Palm Beach Community College
- 1:45 – 2:15 PM – presentations by Student Affiliates/Chem Clubs from FAU, FIU University Park and FIU Biscayne Bay campuses

Atrium Outside

2:30 – 4:30 PM Hands-on chemistry demos and presentations by Student Affiliates/Chem Clubs from FIU University Park, FIU Biscayne Bay, FAU, and Barry University.